We cordially invite you to the 11th World Atheist Conference at Atheist Centre, Vijayawada, Andhra Pradesh, INDIA on January 4-5, 2020.

We are happy to share that 2020 is the 80th year of the Atheist Centre, which was founded in 1940.

Atheist Centre was founded in 1940 by Gora and Saraswathi Gora. Since then, it has been actively involved in building a rational society through many social movements and also in building atheism and humanism as a life stance and promoting rationalism, the spirit of inquiry, critical thinking in India.

Atheist Centre has been organizing World Atheist Conferences since Gora initiated the First World Atheist Conference in 1972. Of these 10, the third Conference in 1983 held at Helsinki, Finland by Free Thinkers of Finland and the Eighth & Tenth World Atheist Conferences in the year 2011 & 2018 were held jointly by Atheist Centre and Dravidar Kazhagam organized in Trichy, Tamil Nadu.

This 11th World Atheist Conference will bring atheists, humanists, rationalists, free thinkers, skeptics, social workers, journalists, people's representatives and like-minded people & organizations from across India and the world over.

The Conference will hold deliberations on the promotion of scientific temper, critical thinking, free inquiry, secularism, humanist education, social reform, combating superstitions, role of youth, women and children in building a rational society, media's role in building rational thought and action, separation of religion and state, international humanist and atheist movement, humanist and atheist leadership, history of atheism and humanism in India and globally, challenges and learnings in atheist and humanist initiatives, fundamentalism and extremism, contribution of prominent atheists, humanists and rationalists in India's development and many topics of current relevance.
